Some students know Allen Hadley as a Master of Ceremonies for various college functions over the past several years. Some know him as chapel speaker, or as an active promoter of Christian Education. Others know him as a long-time, active member of the college Board of Trustees. Many know him for his genuine interest in young people, and his consistent Christian example.

For these and many other reasons we take pleasure in dedicating this 1964 L'AMl to you - -

Allen Hadley

Dedication

"Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave."

John F. Kennedy
May 29, 1917 - November 22, 1963

"Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country."

ADMINISTRATION

Praise to the Lord
is our cry,
Who, in His grace,
does supply
All that we need
and yet more,
Wealth from His bountiful store;
Praise for the college
and what it means,
President Ross
and the deans,
Faculty
doing their parts,
Staff members
using their arts,
The faculty lecture
and song;
Praise to the Lord
all day long.

P.M.

President Milo C. Ross, B.A., D.D., L.H.D.

We are proud of our college president, Dr. Milo C. Ross. During his years of service to George Fox College, our school has grown by leaps and bounds. His interest in our college has carried him many miles across our nation.

As students, we appreciate the personal interest he takes, not only in all of the activities of the school, but in each and every student of the student body. His office is always open to students.

Dr. Ross has now completed his tenth year as college president. At this time we students would like to give a hearty "thanks" for what he has done and is doing for our Alma Mater.

Conditioning, Catharsis or Meaning in Life

The 1964 Faculty Lecture, given by Marie Tieleman, Professor of Psychology and Chairman of the Division of Education and Psychology.

Mrs. Tieleman delivering her lecture.

Reception honoring Mrs. Tieleman at Minthorn hall.

This Year. . .

. . . Kenya won its independence.

. . . our ASGFC president received a Rotary grant for a years study in Ghana.

. . . was election year, and Mike Goldwater visited our campus.

MORNING

In the morning
 would I praise Him
For all things
 fair and good;
For friends
 and all school outings,
For trips
 up to Mount Hood,
For chapels
 and the speakers
That give us
 heavenly manna
For weeks
 of Christian emphasis
With Dr. Cramer
 and David LaShana,
For all things
 both good and fair
I would thank my Lord in prayer.

Senior Class Officers: Barry Hubbell, president; Esther Mae Hinshaw, treasurer; Linnea Stahlnecker, secretary; Chuck Mylander, vice-president.

The biggest event of the year for the seniors, aside from graduation, was the Senior Sneak to a forest camp on Pudget Sound. A clam-dig on the beach, church services at their camp site under the trees, and hiking in the snow were all part of the memorable outing, as well as quantities of good food.

Seniors look ahead - to new occupations, to further schooling, to a new life as they leave George Fox.

Commencement speaker was Merlin Estep of the Willamette Law School. Rev. Frank Starkey, class of '52, was Baccalaureate speaker.

ASGFC President, Lonny Fendall, receives his B.A. from Dr. George Moore and President Ross.

Given an honorary Sc.D. was M. Lowell Edwards, a former Pacific College student, and co-inventor of the famous heart valve which bears his name.

. . . its beauties

. . . its times of study

. . . its times of fun

... its mascot

... its president

We here at George Fox are thankful for these things which help to make up our school. And while every school may have these things, here at GFC they are different, because they are special to each one who spends time in these halls.

... its times for devotion

"... a girl's best friend!"

Plastic shoes even.

Congratulations to Who's Who students.

Chapels

Chapel is an important part in the life at G.F.C. A variety of programs this year made chapel time a high-light for many, in spite of the hard bleachers.

Alvin and Lucy Anderson, all the way from Columbia.

Clynton Crisman was one of the many pastors and Yearly Meeting leaders that spoke in Chapel.

David Le Shana, pastor of the First Friends church of Long Beach, California, was evangelist for the fall Christian Emphasis Week.

Christian Emphasis Weeks

Spring Christian Emphasis Week brought Dr. Raymond Cramer, minister, and director of the Family Counselling Center in Forest Home, California.

L'Ami

The task of the L'Ami staff is to produce the book you now hold in your hands. No one who has never worked on an annual staff has any idea of the headaches involved in putting together a yearbook - such things as misplaced copy, hundreds of negatives to go through, lost pictures, and any number of other things. However, the job is now done, and the staff hopes you will long enjoy the memories brought to you by the pages of this book.

News stories, pictures, write-ups, ads, and just plain work all go in to the making of a newspaper, and The Crescent was no exception. But the work was repaid as staff members saw the eagerness with which students reached for each of the 14 issues produced this year.

Campus - Relations Council

The Campus Relations Council meets regularly to discuss and act upon student policies. This faculty-student organization is the students' voice in student regulations.

Campus Relations Council: Bayard Stone, Mrs. Craven, Dean Louthan, Darrel Nordyke, Dwight Kimberly, Dan Cammack, Nate Baker, Nick Mauer.

Foreign Missions Fellowship

Foreign Missions Fellowship is the campus organization for all those interested in missions. Its by-weekly meetings included several missionaries as speakers.

Off-Campus Students Association

This was the first year for the Off-Campus Students Association. The OCSA is composed of all students living off-campus, and is for the purpose of assuring fair practices and equal rights for off-campus students. The main bulk of work is done by the executive council which meet by-weekly.

Executive council members include: Barry Hubbell, Donna Wilhite, Fred Gregory, Keith Drahn.

Members: Mr. Craven (advisor), Sam Drinnon, Jim Linhart, Dave Brown, Nick Maurer, Alice Hampton, Ron Stansell.

Student Ministerial Association

The Student Ministerial Association is for all students preparing for or considering the ministry as a vocation. The by-weekly meetings feature speakers on various aspects of the pastoral work. Chief function this year was the sponsoring of the Christmas Formal.

Student Christian Union Cabinet

The Student Christian Union, to which all students may belong, is the campus organization for the promotion of religious life. Weekly prayer meetings, chapels, fall and spring Christian Emphasis weeks, and Christian Vocations week are just a few of the activities sponsored and promoted by the students in SCU.

Pi Gamma Sigma

Pi Gamma Sigma is the campus scholastic honorary. Members, who must have a grade average of 3.40 or higher by their junior or senior year, are recognized in an initiation chapel each spring.

Circle K

Circle K is the only service club on the GFC campus. Membership is by invitation. The Circle K Car Bash during exam week helped many students to relieve their test nerves.

Seated: Fred Gregory, Charles Bloodgood, Phil Roberts, Barry Hubbell, Jerry Sandoz. Standing: Roy McConaughey, Mike Caruthers, Lloyd Pruitt, Keith Drahn, Howard Macy, Jim Linhart, Jim Lingenfelter.

Student Education Association

Student Education Association members: Raelene Barnes, Roberta George, Joyce Klutsenbeker, Mary Church, Don Chitwood, Donna Wilhite, Sandy Cornell, Joan Winters, Marilyn Hill, Fred Neumann, Dr. Moore (advisor).

S.E.A. is open to all students who are interested in teaching as a career. One of the highlights this year was the annual picnic given by the advisor, Dr. Moore.

Gold Q

Gold Q, the athletic organization for women, is for all women who have won letters in women's sports. This year they sponsored a play-day, and helped to organize a Women's Recreation Association.

Front row: Janet Johnson, Janet Gathwright, Margaret Church.
Back row: Joanne Rhodes, Carol Durham, Charlene Brown, Mrs. Weesner (advisor).

Scribblers

As the campus organization for those interested in writing and journalism, the Scribblers big job this year was to publish the Scribbler, which contains the writings of students.

Scribblers are: Ron Stansell, Mrs. Angelelo (advisor), Phil Morrill, Phyllis McCracken, Janet Gathwright, Zoie Ewing, Pat Bentley.

Turtle Racing. . .

Intensified Studies

Intensified Studies, our honors program, included the greatest number of students in the program's history. IS gives outstanding students an opportunity for more study and research in their field of interest, climaxing in a public presentation at the end of their senior year.

Senior LONNY FENDALL, major in religion, had as his study "A Comparative Study of Christian and Communist Youth." A synopsis of his report was given to students in chapel period.

Senior BARRY HUBBELL, major in biology, spent much time in his study, "An Investigation of the Small-Scale Culture of Algae for Food." Complete with tanks, tubes, thermometers, and even algae cookies, Barry presented his project to the student body.

Other students in the Intensified Studies program are Juniors Ron Stansell and Phil Morrill; Sophomores Sheldon Hinshaw, Howard Macy, Gae Martin, Diane Ball, and John Slivkoff; and Freshmen Sharon Ehler, Lawrence Roberts, Jon Bishop, Steve LeBaron, Barbara Baker, and Dennis Caruthers.

RAELENE BARNES

This year's May Queen Raelene is a language arts major who plans to enter the internship teaching program upon graduation. She has been active for several years in Oregon Yearly Meeting C.E. affairs.

Raelene's college activities: May Day Queen, Athenians secretary, and behind-the-scenes worker at nearly every college function.

CHUCK MYLANDER

Chuck is a religion major, and transfer from Boise Junior College last year. He is president of the Oregon Yearly Meeting C.E., and plans to spend the summer on the church mission field.

Chuck's college activities: Student Christian Union president, senior class vice-president.

BARRY HUBBELL

A biology major from Newberg, Barry plans to do graduate work in biology upon graduation. He has served as college and community reporter for the Capitol Journal.

Barry's college activities: L'Ami editor two years, senior class president, and secretary of Circle K. He was also instrumental in organizing the Off-Campus Students Association.

RON STANSELL

The only junior chosen for Who's Who is Ron Stansell, religion-history major from Homedale, Idaho. He has been active in Yearly Meeting C.E., serving as vice-president, and Youth Ambassador.

Ron's college activities: Scribblers president, sophomore class president, and SCU prayer meeting chairman.

PHIL ROBERTS

Senior Phil Roberts is a math major from Greenleaf, Idaho. After another year at GFC he hopes to enter law school.

In college, Phil is active in dramatics, has served as president of Circle K, junior class president, and on the SCU cabinet.

Dr. Ross opens the Award Chapel.

Awards

Each year at the end of school, awards are given out in chapel for outstanding work in various areas. This is one of the high points of the year.

Drama awards are given out. . .

. . . as are letters in women's sports and men's sports.

A Cappella Choir

The choir sang for Commencement exercises.

A Cappella choir members are selected from those who sign up to take choir. The highlight of the year is Choir tour. This year the choir traveled through Southern Oregon and California during Spring vacation.

Choir tour involves fun . . . and relaxation . . . as well as many concerts.

Cultural Program

Under the auspices of the Cultural Committee and other groups, we have several cultural events each year. Included in the cultural program this year were . . .

. . . sacred recording artist Frank Boggs, who gave an outstanding concert.

. . . a pottery exhibit by alumnus Peter Snow.

. . . an art exhibit given by the art department of the school.

*May Day Queen Raelene 9
Prince Consort Lloyd*

May Day 1964

Open house is always interesting, at least for the visitors.

"I hereby proclaim May 2 as George Fox College May Day of 1964. I wish to extend to you a cordial invitation to join us in the week-end of festivities featuring 'Favorite Things.'" With these words Queen Raelene I welcomed friends and students to the May Day festivities. Faculty plays, flagpole dedication, Calder Center ground breaking, baseball game, and the Senior class variety program all added to the gay spirit of the week-end.

The new flag is raised.

The ground is broken for the new Calder Center.

1964 May Day Court: Bayard Stone, Joyce Aitken, Lonny Fendall, Marilyn Hill, Queen Raelene Barnes, Prince Consort Lloyd Pruitt, Carole Durham, Larry Houston, Charlene Schlottmann, Barry Hubbell.

May pole winders step lively as they practice for the big event.

The court pauses on their tour of the campus.

The flag pole. . . and in an upright position too!

The good old victory bell that got to ring.

Familiar campus sights?

Those announcements!

Watch out for Bruin!

EVENING

In the evening
 would we praise Him
Through attitudes
 at games,
And acting
 on the stage,
Through meeting
 in His Name
And working for our Lord,
Rejoicing in
 "The Greatest Gift,"
And thinking thoughts
 of love that's true
Through parties, and in all we do
Our voices we in praise would lift.

1963 Football

Football season this year was a little more encouraging than in the last couple years. The team showed high spirits and a real determination to win in spite of several drawbacks. All games had to be played on the high school field or on the opponents field as the GFC field was in the process of being finished.

Attendance at the games was good, and a real spirit of enthusiasm was shown by the school as well as the team. We were proud of our gridiron men.

Basketball

This year's basketball team followed in the tradition at GFC by being the outstanding sport. More wins than losses, a high spirited team, good student body support, some non-league games--all this and more led to an outstanding season.

Team members: Dale
 Rinard, Jess Wilson,
 Dwight Kimberly, Ron

Invitational Tournament

This year's Invitational Tourney was a real success. Sponsored by the Foxmen, the tourney was well attended, and spirits were high.

Highlight of the tournament was the final game between GFC and Haviland, with the GFC Quakers finally winning the victory, and the tournament championship.

Friends Bible College, Haviland Kansas, choir provided half-time entertainment at the closing game.

Wrestling

Wrestling was a new sport at GFC this year. In spite of this fact, the team did very well.

It was not all fun and nonsense as the pictures show. The fellows worked hard, and made a good showing.

Team members: Jon Bishop, Tom Farr, John Stopa, Roger Stopa, Allen Steinke, Mike Cox, and Kent Thornburg.

"DOCK BRIEF"

Unsuccessful Barrister Morganhall (Bayard Stone), and unsuccessful criminal Fowle (Phil Roberts) discuss their case in the senior-sophomore play, "Dock Brief." This play, under the direction of Gae Martin and Phil Roberts, won the Best Play award.

Homecoming One-Act Plays

"HIGH WINDOW"

Mock invalid Sharon Wright confers with lawyer Phil Morrill in the junior-freshman play, "High Window." Extreme right, Sharon takes a swing at her meek, myopic nephew, Clark Adams.

The cast, under the direction of Dorothy Wise and Sheldon Hinshaw included:

Emily Winthrop	Sharon Wright
Stephen Craig	Phil Morrill
Judith Ware	Lynn Hawthorne
Walter Hodge	Clark Adams
Linda Norton	Joan Christensen

"The Servant in the House"

An analogy of the difference Christ should make in the life of man was the theme of the fall student body play, "The Servant in the House." This religious drama by Charles R. Kennedy was well presented by the cast.

Martha Smythe questions Manson as Rev. Smythe looks on.

"THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE" CAST

Rogers, a page boy Gary Sweatt
 Manson, a butler Lonny Fendall
 Rev. William Smythe James Linhart
 Mary, Rev. Smythe's niece Dianna Templer Kennison
 Martha, wife of Rev. Smythe Raelene Barnes
 Robert Smith, a gentleman Robert Schneiter of necessary occupation
 James, the Bishop of Lancaster Gary Hinkle
 Director Miss Clara Axie Dyer

Faculty Plays

Dr. Arthur Roberts and President Milo Ross star in the play "The Mighty Hunter."

The other faculty play given was "Beau of Bath", featuring Earnest Lichti, Lawrence Skene, Florence Angelelo, and Mary Sandoz.

The faculty quartet - Dean Sheldon Louthan, Dorothy Oppenlander, Cristobel Fors Lauinger, and Earnest Lichti - present their famous "Geographical Fugue."

"The Imaginary Invalid"

Moliere's three-act comedy, "The Imaginary Invalid" was the spring student body play. Under the direction of Mrs. Dilla Winslow the cast gave two outstanding performances.

"THE IMAGINARY INVALID" CAST

Students, faculty, and special speakers brought challenging devotionals each Wednesday evening.

Student

This year for the S.C.U. Missions Project, students raised over $700 to help in the establishment of the evangelical radio station in Burundi, East Africa.

Student Christian Union sponsored Student Prayer Meeting each Wednesday evening was a highlight of each week. It was attended by a large number of the students, and provided a time of fellowship, inspiration, and united prayer in the middle of the week.

Prayer Meeting

Everyone had a chance to participate in prayer as the group broke up into small prayer groups after the message.

The Chordsmen Quartet: Darrell Nordyke, Lloyd Pruitt, Howard Macy and Dave Kovacs.

The Kingsmen Quartet: John Coleman, Wendall Barnett, Mahlon Wilson and Harold Clark. This quartet traveled for the college during the summer.

Deputation

Darrell Nordyke and Harold Clark lead singing at a campus singspiration in Pennington Lobby.

Lonny Fendall and Dick Foster initiated a new program this year, that of Youth Accent. Each weekend they, along with musical help from other college students, went to various churches to hold special youth meetings.

Service is an important part of every Christian's life. G.F.C. students had opportunity to serve the Lord through the deputation program of the college. Musical and speaking groups traveled to many churches and organizations, always bearing the testimony of the change Christ can make in one's life.

Program

The King's Clarions: Marilyn Hill, Anne Thornburg and Charlene Schlottmann.

The Joy Bells trio from Multnomah School of the Bible provided part of the entertainment for the evening. Also on the program was a marimbist from Cascade, and talent from the G.F.C. students.

Christmas Formal

"The Greatest Gift" was the theme of the Christmas formal banquet this year, sponsored by the Student Ministerial Association. Dean Louthan was Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

Hester gymnasium was decorated with a blue and white false ceiling, large stained glass windows, and many beautiful tables. Above: Prize winning table, secular theme. Left: Prize winning table, best portrayal of the theme.

Valentine Formal

Amidst cupids, hearts and streamers, students enjoyed an evening of table games and entertainment at the Valentine Formal, held in the Christian Church annex.

Court: Mike Caruthers, Joyce Roberts, Lawrence Roberts, Diane Ball, King Dale Rinard, Queen Lois White, John Slivkoff, and Barbara Bollish.

The Overtones quartet from Lewis and Clark helped provide the evening's entertainment.

Punch and cake made a perfect ending to a perfect party.

Birthday Party

The annual Birthday Banquet took on a different flavor this year as students met in the gym following the evening meal. The decorations and entertainment were provided by the students grouped together by the signs of the Zodiac. As usual, many interesting and humorous things took place. The Kingsmen Quartet also sang.

There were many other social activities other than the main parties and banquets. Aftergame parties, monthly socials, and many other things helped to keep the social calendar of the students busy.

Dining hall help has Christmas fun.

The Junior-Senior Banquet at the Home Plate restaurant in Portland was a memorable occasion. Kenneth Williams was Master of Ceremonies, Bayard Stone gave the Senior Class Will, and Brian Beals read the Class Prophecy.

Music was an important feature to many school socials.

Top: Edgar Madrid plays his saw at the Thanksgiving party.

Right: The G.F.C. Madrigal Singers perform at Christmas time.

Hootenanny

"Hootenanny" was a word heard often around campus this year. Two big Hootenannies were held during the year at the Central School auditorium, with nearly capacity crowds.

Night

comes to George Fox College and another year has ended. We trust that this has been a good year for each student, and that in years to come we will all look back on 1963-64 with many fond memories of fun, study, spiritual growth, and of all the things that go into a year at college. And as the last picture is pasted in and the last piece of copy written, the editor would like to express her appreciation to those who helped in the production of this year's L'Ami.

Thanks to BARRY for his help and advice that he passed on to a new, green editor.

Thanks to FRED for taking over the financial end completely.

Thanks to ESTHER MAE for her work getting clubs organized for their pictures.

Thanks to PHYLLIS for her clever copy work.

Thanks to PHIL, LARRY, DICK and KEN for all the time spent taking and developing pictures.

Thanks to HARLOW ANKENY for his advice and counsel.

Thanks to EACH STUDENT for their patience in receiving their annuals.

Thanks to those students who volunteered their help in re-paste up after some pictures walked off.

Here is your 1964 L'AMI. We hope you enjoy it.
